16 April 1989

Dear Brian:

Hopefully this will reach you. Came across your letter to me dated January 18, 1987, so I am a bit late in responding. My apologies, but though holding my own now had found at that time that I had a bit of cancer and spent a bit more than a year working on it - lymphacytic malignant lymphoma also called non-Hodgkins Lymphoma and it had infiltrated into the bone marrow. Things are going fairly well now and holding steady.

Anyway, if you have not already figured out the answers to the questions you brought up:

1. Source of information on Sarah M. Perrine (#156). What I had put in was not proven by myself but rather taken directly from Howland Delano Perrine's publication. He was, as noted here and there by me, subject to a few errors and omissions. Like most persons working on genealogy in that era, they did not necessarily go out and look for documentation of any kind. Personally, I believe he was more interested in the Coat of Arms. (The persons I spent time on are those where you will see documentation either noted, or census figures, etc. typed in.)

2. Re Peter Daniel Perrine (#30), I did not say that he was interred at Cassville. Again, I quoted Howland Delano Perrine in stating that he died at Cassville. He did not indicate where he was interred, but-without a doubt-it was either Cassville or Holmansville.

3. Re Peter Daniel Perrine (#30) the marriage to Anne Garrison is recorded as noted in Volume A, Page 111 of Monmouth County Marriages on February 12, 1809. You will note that I copied from a Deed, Book A-3, Page 466 noting the heirs at law of Henry Garrison; Heirs included Peter Perrine and wife, Nancy. So, I would assume she was naMed Nancy and called Anne depending on who was using the name. Again this was very common. I took the marriage directly from the old records-Gibson's has a few errors in it according to the Genealogical Society of New Jersey.

4. With reference to Elizabeth Thomas and Corlis Perrine. Again (though I followed my own family completely, unless there are references to Book and Page Number for marriages, I do not have a record of same and either did not document or since it was not my immediate family, did not do so. Census records are what I located as are all deeds and wills. The rest is from Howland Delano Perrine up to but not including the generation of Barzilla Perrine, Mary Perrine who married James Moore, Nancy Perrine who married George Marlatt. Previous generations I added to where I found records. When I do get back to Freehold, I shall look to see if there are any records for Corlis and Elizabeth on their marriage.

I am quite interested in Elizabeth Thomas since she was apparently a sister of Charles Thomas. I have branched out and am researching (or trying to) the Thomas family since my grandchildren go back to Charles Thomas through the Marter family. Charles Thomas came from Upper Freehold (Allentown). Have been unable to locate much information on him or who his father and mother were. He is buried in the Methodist Cemetery in Allentown as is his wife.

If Howland Delano Perrine's book is available in any library near you, perhaps you might want to look it up and you can ascertain what I did add to my own production on the Perrines.

All best wishes. If you are ever coming this way again, perhaps if you can give a few days notice, we can get together for lunch.

Sincerely,

Louise

Dear Brian -

Received your note dated in August and the one in November. Had not forgotten you, but since I was no longer in remission was back on chemotherapy. Not as bad as it sounds since I take it orally - 10 days of chlorambucil and ten days off, all in little pills. Back in 87-88 took same with prednisone with good results, stayed in remission for about 2yrs, but have refused the prednisone since I have a reaction to it. However, appear to be obtaining good results and my Doctor seems pleased. I feel quite well most of the time, except for tiring out easily (9 p.m. I am in bed either going to sleep or letting TV put me to sleep). Since I had also had a heart attack a couple of years ago and a kidney removed (carcinoma), I consider myself much better off than a lot of persons I know or know of. The only limits I impose on myself when researching is not to spend more than 3-4 hours in the old records. Find that is enough to wear anyone out, trying to decipher same.

I note that you are a Doctor of Chiropracty. When did you go into practice. A sister and brother-in-law of my daughter's husband are both Chiropractors in the State of New York.

The "Thomas" family is one of the most elusive I have come across. Rachel, wife of Charles, is rather well researched under the "Perrine" side. Charles is somewhat of a deadend. Names of his sisters and brothers were supplied to me by a great-great of Robert Thomas who went to Ohio. One of these days, after a good rain, I intend to casually go to Allentown and dig a little grass out around Rachel's headstone to see if her full date of birth is on there. As you noted, when I looked up the death certificate for Elizabeth "Thomas" Perrine it gave her parents as William and Mary Thompson, which could have well been in error. William Thomas and Margaret Perrine I have not found, but find it logical to believe that Elizabeth Thomas, William Thomas and Charles Thomas were siblings. At least that is the premise I have been working on until proved otherwise. The last time I looked in the Holmansville Cemetery, the date of death on Elizabeth's headstone was 2/20/1881; age 64.2.28. Corlis's headstone gave a date of death as 5/17/1891; born 5/5/1817. Now I have to go back and recheck since my other notes show that Corlis died 10/17/1891 and Elizabeth on 4/20/1881. Next to their graves is Isaac Storer, 1855-1895 and his wife, Rachel who died 4/9/1905, age 47yr. Same type of headstone for all. To clear this up I will go down within the next week and recheck the dates. Then I will trot off to Trenton this month and check death certificates again if there is a free microfilm reader. They now limit the time you can use one, plus they are only open 4 days a week in the Archive section.

dau of Corlis <-

Will also try to get down to Freehold this month and re-check marriages for both families that may be recorded. Assume the old books are still available.

Cannot be of much help at this moment, but will make every effort to improve - both for myself, you and whomever else is interested.

Sometime ago, you had forwarded information on Francis/ Ireland connection with the Perrine's. Since I cannot locate same, maybe you could send it along once more. Also, I received an inquiry about the marriage of Anthony Layton to Sarah Perrine, sister of Rachel above and dau of Peter Daniel Perrine and Nancy Garrison (Garretson in some records) Have you any information on the Layton's?

My long term goal is to get all of this in a more legible and readable form and into my computor records, so I do not have to go through reams of papers, big and small, and notes that I jotted here and there. This was done back when I was first starting this project and was not as thorough as one should have been.

Re Peter D. Perrine interred Yellow Meeting House (Baptist). Apparently no headstone is there, or it is long gone. First checked it out in the 70's but did not locate his grave then or since.

Keep in touch - and a raincheck on luncheon one day when you wander back to NJ.

Sincerely,

Louise M. Borodaeff

On 1 July 1871 Robert Ireland married Amelia Parker, daughter of Richard Parker Jr. (son of Richd Parker + Mary Steers).

The connection to the Perrine family is very oblique: Richd Jr.'s bro. was James Parker. James son was William Henry Parker who married Sarah Perrine (daughter of Cornus)

Dear Louise,

Glad to hear from you. I send you sincere wishes for continued improvement. I went into practice 5 years ago and am now currently in post-graduate study to be a chiropractic internist, that is to treat internal disorders without medications when possible.

I started to look into the Thomas line after your letter and I have found several things. First, I'll address your letter.

The correct date of death for Elizabeth Perrine is 2/20/1881 and Corlis' was 10/17/1891. The stones next to theirs, Rachael and Issac Storer, are their daughter Rachael Perrine and her husband.

As to the Ireland family, I have very little information on any Ireland's. The only one I have in my research is associated rather distantly from the Perrine family. On 1 July 1871 Robert Ireland married Amelia Parker, daughter of Richard Parker, Jr. Richard,Jr.'s brother James Parker was father to William Henry Parker who married Sarah Perrine, daughter of Corlis and Elizabeth.

As to the Layton connection. In your book Sarah Perrine (#61) married Anthony Layton. The date I found was 24 November 1823. In 1850 census they are in Plumstead Twp. (p.121, ln.26). Their children are your #'s 147-149 plus - Tunis, b. 1835 and Margaret, b. 1841

Now to my "discoveries":

On an 1851 Monmouth County Map (Jesse Lightfoot, surveyor; J.B. Shields, publisher) there appears a Charles Thomas and Charles Thomas, Jr. just south and west of Clarksburg. Perhaps a look at the property records will give a time period as it is unclear whether Charles or Charles, Jr. is the one who married Rachel Perrine.

There are two wills in Monmouth County that warrent closer scrutiny: Charles Thomas, dated 1865 (#12317M); and William Thomas, Sr. dated 1850 (11247M). Perhaps these will give clues. There is also an inventory for a Joseph W. Thomas in 1840 (10546M) that may help. (Probably less so than the wills)

I found two marriages in Monmouth County that may be related: MaryAnn Thomas married John Manning on 24 Sept. 1838; and Sarah

Thomas married Capt. Walter Kerr, Jr. on 10 Jan. 1833.

There appears in the 1793 military census a Robert Thomas in District 3 of Upper Freehold Twp. This was the only Thomas I could find in either Freehold or Upper Freehold Twps. (Peter D. Perrine is listed in the 6th district, Freehold Twp.)

You may also wish to consult with David Miller, Jackson Township historian. (He is the one that originally gave me your name). He's at the Jackson Twp. Municipal building. There is a map there, an 1876 Scott Atlas, that may show a "Thomas" family near Cassville. (Corlis Perrine is shown just south of VanHiseville)

Lastly, when I checked the Monmouth County marriage registers I found that on 20 April 1839 an Elizabeth Thomas married a Cornelius Boice, not Corlis Perrine. The Boice family is also from this area. Do you have any thoughts on this?

I will continue to try to piece together the Thomas family from this end. I have been trying to organize the different census information I have to make sense of it. Perhaps some family groups will come out of it. Unfortunately the early ones are alphabetical so it makes it difficult to follow the family from census to census as there are no neighbors to track with them. If anything turns up I'll let you know.

I also found that there was no stone for Peter D. Perrine. I checked an old inventory, from the late 1890's I believe, and there was no listing then either. Unless a stone turns up somewhere else I guess the safest bet is to assume he is interred at the Old Yellow Meeting House and the stone is gone.

I'll keep you posted about a return trip to NJ, perhaps in October.

Sincerely,

Dr. Brian A. Smith

Dear Brian -

Received your latest letter just before I left for Trenton. Think you will like all of the above. Unfortunately, good old William died just before the 1850 Census, so no age will be found unless I can find him in the Mortality schedule when I go back next week. At least he had the foresight to name his children for our benefit.

Obviously, the death certificate for Elizabeth is wrong in stating she was the daughter of William and Mary Thompson. Whoever took the information misinterpreted the answer as to parents.

Names of children I had originally been given included a Henry, Corlis, Mary, and Robert,who are not mentioned in the will. Perhaps they never existed or were dead by 1844, or William did not see fit to make a bequest to them.

I do find that Rebecca married Charles Applegate; Ezekiel married Marie Runals (Reynolds); Sarah married Capt. Walter Kerr; William Thomas, Jr. married Margaret Perrine; Charles Thomas, Jr. married Rachel Perrine. Will be going back to Freehold in a week or so to recheck marriage records. The marriages of Charles and William I did locate a week or so ago - BUT, they had not been recorded until 1863 when the officiant or someone representing him turned them in. Will send out Book and Pg number after I recheck.

Regarding Will #12317M of Charles Thomas, it was inconclusive for anything. Mentioned children but no names. Left everything to his wife who he trusted would take care of his children. Did not name wife. Doubt this was our Charles since he apparently did not die until 1867.

Inventory #10546M of Joseph W. Thomas also does nothing for us. He was from Stafford, County of Monmouth. Inv. totaled $404.88 and included 58 prs of shoes and book accounts of $222.37. Apparently he was a shoemaker. Inv. dated October 19, 1840 by John Willits and Noel Haywood.

To shed more light, will have to look at deeds and see what can be found if there was property and children and spouses had to sign off on same.

The marriage you mention for Elizabeth Thomas/Cornelius Boice in 1839 is completely out of the question I feel, since William Thomas, Sr. clearly named his daughter as Elizabeth Perrine. Have not yet found her marriage to Corlis recorded but hope to find it when I go back. Cannot quite imagine Howland Davison Perrine being that much off the track.

Sincerely,

Louise M. Borodaeff

Dear Brian,

Enclosed a bit more, with what I had sent enlarged upon. Bit by bit, the pieces are falling in place, though slow progress.

Noted your information with interest and still have to incorporate same. Hope you did not think I might be overly shocked regarding your personal information. 20-30 years ago I might have been, but time mellows one and gives a bit more understanding. There are more important things to concern yourself about. Aside from genealogy my main interest is will my husband's company continue to pay his pension and benefits; will social security go broke; and what else our President can do to make things difficult. Was dumb enough to vote for him and regret it more each week.

Hope the Easter Bunny came to see you and that you are in good health and have a busy practice. For myself, I am doing well, I think. Take care -

Sincerely,

Dear Brian -

Have not heard from you in a long time. Hope you are doing okay, that your practice is thriving, etc.

Enclosed is my somewhat completed work on William Thomas, Sr. As you know his wife, Mary, was apparently born in Pennsylvania so it is near impossible to track her down at that early date. William's parents are equally difficult. Since he named two of his sons as: William Thomas, Jr., and Charles Thomas, Jr.
I am inclined to believe that Charles was his father or his brother. There is a Charles Thomas, Sr. in census but the age is wrong for him to be the father of William Thomas, Sr. BUT - he might have been a brother. The use of "Jr" and "Sr" did not always mean the same as it is used today.

Anyhow, unless something more is stumbled across, back I go to concentrating on the Perrines for a while. By the way, we are fourth cousins, four generations removed. How about that....

Keep me posted on your progress. Let me know if you still have any contradictions or corrections.

Hope you enjoy what is completed thus far. Still hope to perhaps meet you one day for lunch if you ever return to NJ.

Sincerely
Lorna

Dear Brian -

The New Year has begun - time passes by quickly and even with the best of intentions I note your last letter was dated the September 22nd and just now am getting around to responding.

Great to receive the picture of tombstone for William and obviously the footstone for his wife. At the time of year you went in to look, it must have been a mess. Am waiting for a clear, possibly mild, day to go back during the winter and look around. Was quite surprised to hear you had found the headstone. Who knows what else is under leaves, or literally buried in there.

By the way, to add to the mystery of William - the death certificate for his son, Ezekiel, gives William's place of birth as New York. So we have William, apparently born in New York; his wife, Mary, apparently born in Pennsylvania. Death certificates for that period did not give much information. Place of birth was usually given as USA. Have not come across any death certificate for Mary as yet. Perhaps, someday the puzzle may be solved.

Also, exactly who Charles was named after still has to be figured out.

Not much to report from here at this time. Will be in touch. Hope you had a happy holiday and enjoy a great New Year.

Sincerely,

Louise M. Borodaeff
